

(d) Shall not reduce its capital stock except with the prior consent of the Board.⁵

§ 208.7 Conditions of membership.

(a) Pursuant to the authority contained in the first paragraph of section 9 of the Federal Reserve Act, which authorizes the Board to permit applying State banks to become members of the Federal Reserve System “subject to the provisions of this act and to such conditions as it may prescribe pursuant thereto,” the Board, except as hereinafter stated, will prescribe the following conditions of membership for each State bank hereafter applying for admission to the Federal Reserve System, and, in addition, such other conditions as may be considered necessary or advisable in the particular case:

(1) Such bank at all times shall conduct its business and exercise its powers with due regard to the safety of its depositors, and, except with the permission of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, such bank shall not cause or permit any change to be made in the general character of its business or in the scope of the corporate powers exercised by it at the time of admission to membership.⁶

(2) The net capital and surplus funds of such bank shall be adequate in relation to the character and condition of its assets and to its deposit liabilities and other corporate responsibilities.

(b) The acquisition by a member State bank of the assets of another institution through merger, consolidation, or purchase may result in a change in the general character of its business or in the scope of its corporate powers within the meaning of the condition set forth in paragraph (a)(1) of this section, and if at any time a bank subject to such condition anticipates making any such acquisition a detailed report setting forth all the facts in connection with the transaction shall be made promptly to the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which such bank is located.

(c) If at any time, in the light of all the circumstances, the aggregate amount of a member State bank’s net capital and surplus funds appears to be inadequate, the bank, within such period as shall be deemed by the Board to be reasonable for this purpose, shall increase the amount thereof to an amount which in the judgment of the Board shall be adequate in relation to the character and condition of its assets and to its deposit liabilities and other corporate responsibilities.

§ 208.8 Banking practices.

(a) Scope. No State member bank shall engage in practices which are unsafe or unsound or which result in a violation of law, rule, or regulation, or which violate any condition imposed by or agreements entered into with the Board. This section outlines certain of the practices in which State member banks should not engage.

(b) Waiver. A State member bank has the right to petition the Board to waive the conditions of this § 208.8. A waiver may be granted upon a showing of good cause. The Board in its discretion may choose to limit, among other items, the scope, duration, and timing of the waiver.

(c) Effect on other banking practices. Nothing in this section shall be construed as restricting in any manner the Board’s authority to deal with any banking practice which is deemed to be unsafe or unsound or otherwise not in accordance with law, rule, or regulation or which violates any condition

⁵This applies to capital stock of all classes and to capital notes and debentures legally issued and purchased by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation which, under the Federal Reserve Act, are considered as capital stock for purposes of membership.

⁶For many years, the Board prescribed, as standard conditions of membership, a condition which, in general, prohibited banks from engaging as a business in the sale of real estate loans to the public and certain conditions relating to the exercise of trust powers, including one which prohibited self-dealing in the investment of trust funds. The elimination of these conditions as standard conditions of membership does not reflect any change in the Board’s position as to the undesirability of the practices formerly prohibited by such conditions; and attention is called to the fact that engaging as a business in the sale of real estate loans to the public or failing to conduct trust business in accordance with the applicable State laws and sound principles of trust administration may constitute unsafe or unsound practices and violate the condition set forth in this paragraph.
